We are unveiling a new Sacred Heart website this week. The new site address is <https://catholic.irockne.com>. Why will the new site be better? Our old website had become unmaintainable, and was in need of an overhaul. The new Sacred Heart website is mobile device friendly, and has been designed using the very latest in modern web style guidelines and security. It is a collaborative effort, getting active content updates from many ministry leaders and contributors in our parish on a variety of topics. It features the latest bulletins, parish news and information, material on Sacred Heart ministries and religious education, and much more. (Rodney Kadura)
