The pastoral council, formally known as a parish council, plays a vital role in the life of a parish community. Here are the key points about a pastoral council: Purpose and Formation: 1) A pastoral council is established in each parish or mission within the Diocese of Austin; 2) It operates under the authority of the Pastor (the priest assigned to the parish); 3) The council is formed to provide consultation and guidance on pastoral matters. Composition: 1) Members of the pastoral council typically include laypeople (non-clergy members) from the parish community. Members are Ben Gutierrez, Briannah Halm, Linda Kutach, Jackie May, Marilyn Klaus, Patsy Meuth, Rommy McDonald; 2) The council may also include representatives from various ministries, organizations, and demographic groups within the parish. Ministries are liturgical, social, educational, facilities and sacristan; 3) More information to follow. (Linda Kutach)
