Join our Danza in Honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The Danza is a beautiful tradition of prayer and devotion in which participants honor Our Lady of Guadalupe through music, movement, and sacrifice. More than a performance, it is an act of faith and thanksgiving, offered with love to our Blessed Mother. Through this tradition, dancers express their devotion while preserving a rich spiritual and cultural heritage that has been passed down through generations. We warmly invite all members of our parish community who feel called to honor Our Lady of Guadalupe to join our Danza ministry. If you have a desire to grow in your faith and serve Our Blessed Mother, we welcome you. There is a place for children, youth, and adults who wish to participate. If you are interested in joining the Danza, please contact Veronica at 512-988-3062 or at hispanic.coordinator@shcrockne.church or speak to one of our Danza members after the Spanish Mass. Come be part of this beautiful expression of faith as we celebrate and cherish Our Lady of Guadalupe together. (Veronica Barrera)

The family of Vickie Moncure would like to express our deepest gratitude to Fr Howard Goertz, Fr Dariusz, Deacon Alvin, and Deacon Muehr who officiated her funeral mass. The comforting words and your presence made the service a celebration of her life and a beautiful tribute to her memory. We are also deeply thankful to G&C Printing for printing the beautiful prayer cards and the St. Ann's Society for your wonderful support in setting up the reception hall and providing delicious desserts and drinks. Your kindness and generosity brought great comfort to our family during this difficult time.
